Aces Lose in Homecoming Romp

Escorts John Ritter, Dean Lothamer, Queen's Escort Ron Bauer, Mark Haver, Todd Treece
Attendants Jenny Brown, Tanya Hedderig, Queen Diane Amaden, Heidi Plassman, Marci Handy

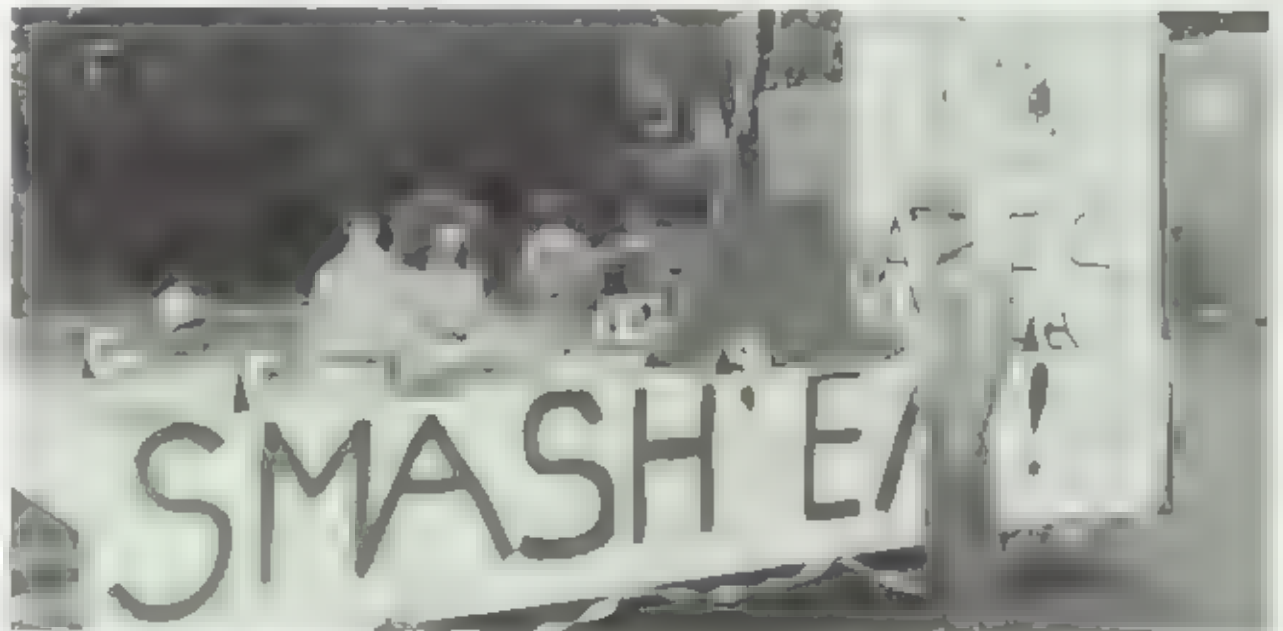

The 1981 Homecoming festivities were held on October 2 and 3. Diane Amaden reigned over the ceremonies, which began in the high school parking lot with the float judging. Taking first place in the float contest were the freshmen; the Juniors, second; the sophomores, third, and the second year tradition for the senior class — receiving last place.

The Marching Aces, directed by Doug Parrott, led the Queen and her court to the field for the football romp against the Archer rivals of Antwerp. Despite the efforts of Coach Dick DeWitt and his squad, the Aces were defeated by a score of 16-7.

The Homecoming Dance, which was sponsored by the student council, was held Saturday, October 3, featuring the music of the group Future, making Homecoming 1981 an evening to remember.

In efforts to raise money for the prom, the junior class sponsored Variety '81, instead of putting on a junior class play. The effort proved very successful. Many juniors, as well as other HHS students, took part in the show and displayed their talents from telling jokes to performing serious music.

Since the show was held on December 19, the juniors, advised by Susan Peverly and Phil Trzynka, concluded their production by leading the audience in many Christmas carols.

The HHS musical this year was "Kiss Me, Kate," which was performed on April 3 and 5 at the Front Row Theatre, in coordination with The Village Players. Mrs. Alice Longworth and Mr. Glenn Fulk directed a veteran cast of characters, which acted in the musical adaption of Shakespeare's The Taming of the Shrew.

"Kiss Me, Kate" took place between the backstage area of a theater in Baltimore and the streets in Padua, Italy during the summer time.

Taking the lead roles in the play were Tanya Heddering and Mark Staehle who played the parts of Lilli Vinessi/Katherine and Fred Graham/Petruchio. The other supporting roles were played by Pete Greer, Diane Wonderly, Liz Groh, Bert Strubing, Tim Crow, Steve Talbott, Craig Whonsetler, Don Strubing, Brent Tomlinson, Scott Mills, Dawn Wahl, and Todd Burley. The chorus consisted of Mel Barker, Dawn Kale, Susie Meyer, Crystal Parsons, and Tricia Vincent. Providing the accompaniment on the piano was Charmagne Cummins.

1982 Coronation,

Coronation 1982 was held on March 27. Theme for the coronation show was "You Asked For It."

Starting off the show was Maestro Gladys Ahrens leading the flutes. Diane Amaden, Sara Bailey, Cathy Bauer, Tim Brown, Deb Cole, Charmagne Cummins, Deann Haver, Lisa Rodocker, Cindy Hook, Lisa Hesselschwardt, Patty Ritter, Janis Thompson, and Renee Wonderly, in an Overture.

Following the overture was a trumpet solo featuring Gladys Ahrens playing "Feels So Good." Accompaniment was provided by Sara Bailey, Charmagne Cummins and Dan Bond.

Putting a touch of humor in the show with "A Day in Court," were Cathy Bauer, Deb Cole, Charmagne Cummins, John Grimm (Pebbles), Patty Ritter, Lisa Rodocker, and Janis Thompson.

Mike Calhoun then provided some imitations of his favorite personalities.

Charmagne Cummins and Tanya Hedderig then provided some remembrances of their high school years in Friendship.

Dawn Wahl provided entertainment with a tap dance routine to "One." Liz Groh then provided some more entertainment with a solo entitled "Statue of Liberty."

The wading pool was portrayed by Deb Cole and Lori Gibson.

Putting some excitement into the night was Black Jack, Mark Bassett, Mark Biery, Alan Etchey, Ted Hostetler, and Tim Zimmerman — who sang "Live Wire."

Sara Bailey next mellowed the evening with a solo, "He's Got A Way," accompanied by Charmagne Cummins.

Then part of the evening, "The Five," were Air Force, Basketball, Football, and Angie Siebe, and only.

To change the pace with her piano solo, Charmagne Cummins played the "Gatlinburg Boogie."

Sara Bailey, as "Duke," "Zor Ar," "Bob Battershell," Mark Biery, Dave Miquin, and Tim Zimmerman sang "Tiny Bubbles."

Patty Ritter then set the stage back to the twenties with a clarinet solo "Stardust."

Next, the Bed Bugs made their appearance in the form of Diane Amaden, Colleen Adams, Lisa Hesselschwardt, and Mike Volker.

John Grimm and Sara Bailey then performed the duet "You Don't Bring Me Flowers."

The Rootbeer Hunters then appeared to liven the show with a game. Performers were Dave Miquin, Tim Zimmerman, and Bob Battershell.

It became a "Small World" when Robin Hase, Janis Thompson, Roseann Hauter, Roberts Caperton, Cindy Hook, Kathy Mumy, and Renee Wonderly performed "A Day in the Life of Short People."

Then Alisa Dewey rocked the auditorium with her dance routine to "I Love Rock and Roll," with Ted Hostetler accompanying her.

The Senior Class then provided the audience with a song entitled "Louie Louie," under the direction of Bob Battershell and Dan Michael.

To end the night there was a dance at the elementary gym. The band performing was Silversmith.

Since there is not a conference for junior high cross country, the junior high students participated in high school meets. This gave the students coached by Mr. Jerry Balser, experience, training, and an advancement to compete with high school students to further prepare them for the future Aces high school team. "Many of the students ranked fairly high in these meets," added Coach Balser.

5 Wins and 5 Losses

Coaches Bart Graff, Pete Brunow, Jeff Johnson and kneeling Coach Dick DeWitt

Coach DeWitt commented that this was billed as a rebuilding year. "Nobody considered us as much of a threat. After the humiliation by Delphos Jefferson, we could very easily have folded. But our five seniors picked up this young team and made them winners."

"Five and five is not a spectacular record, however, I am very proud of the young men who worked and pulled together to achieve it. Not only was it the first winning season since 1977 but it was two more wins than anyone predicted we would win."

Leading in passing was Mike Volkert, with 128 passes; Mike also led in punting with a 36.1 average. Leading in Rushing and Place Kicking was Dennis Michael and Mark Haver, respectively. Leading in interceptions was Tim Turnbull with 5.

Placing on First Team GMC was Mike Volkert as Quarterback, Def. Back, Punter, Mike Burlingame as Def. Tackle, Ron Bauer as Tight End, and Mark Haver as the Place Kicker. On Second Team was Mark Haver as a Linebacker. Receiving Honorable Mention was Dennis Michael and Dean Lothamer.

The Junior Aces were hurt this year by the fact that only 8 players returned from last year's squad. However, there were around 40 boys out, showing that perhaps the football program at H.H.S., under the direction of Varsity Coach Dick DeWitt, is finally on its way back up, where it belongs.

Though the Aces were outsized and this lack of experience showed; every game was played a lot tougher than the final score would tend to indicate. Except for league Champ Wayne Trace, these boys did a fantastic job.

"They will surely go on to be men, we at Hicksville can be very proud of

Golfers Have Impressive Record,

The young Aces golf team, under the direction of Coach Steve Thiel, ended the season with an impressive 35-12-1 record. The 1981-82 Boys Varsity Basketball season was one of exciting surprises and sometimes disappointing endings.

Coach Harmon stated, "We won some very important games and we also lost some very pivotal games." He also said that he appreciated the members of the team very much for their support and hard work. "It means very much to everyone to have a winning season and this only happens through long hours of practice and dedication."

One thing Coach Harmon really believes is that Success in any Sport has to be Earned

"The Aces team did a super job and it should be commended for its great season."

The seventh grade Boys' basketball team finished the season with a 4 wins 7 losses record. The team had three goals for the season: work hard to improve as a team, work hard to improve as individuals, and hustle on the court at all times. "I think the team learned a lot about basketball this year." With hard work and concentration on basic skills, this team will continue to improve year by year.

Dennis Michael again feels the victory of being the first one across the finish line.

Both the boys and girls track teams had very successful seasons. The teams not only placed well as a team in meets, but as individuals.

The girls again placed fifth in the Blade Relays and sent four members of the team to the state meet in Columbus. The 400 meter relay team of Theresa Lothamer, Linda Michael, Lisa Laub, and Colleen Adams pulled fifth overall with a time of 51.27. Colleen Adams ended her high school track career with a third place finish in the 200 meter dash.

Qualifying from the boys team for state was Dennis Michael in the 100 and 200 meter dashes and Mike Burlingame in the shot put. Dennis finished sixth in the 100 and fourth in the 200. Mike's heave of 44 plus was not good enough for a placement, but a trip to state was a goal he fulfilled with hard work and dedication.

HHS track coaches Deb Baringer and Jerry Balser were happy to have their teams represented at state and note that with a good crop of returning lettermen on both teams, the Aces are looking forward to next season.

Varsity Baseball Has Outstanding 27-3 Season

Hicksville's varsity baseball team posted the best record in the history of the school, as they finished their season with a record of 27-3. Just about the only honor they weren't able to attain was the coveted state title. The Aces earned sectional, district, and regional titles and captured both GMC AND BBC titles with 7-0 records.

The team scored 251 runs while limiting their opponents to only 87. They compiled a hefty .332 team batting average, collecting 49 doubles, ten triples, and 22 home runs. Senior Mike Volkert led the Aces on the mound with a record of 9-1. He pitched 70 innings, gave up just 6 earned runs, struck out 103, and had the best ERA in the area with a 0.60. Not far behind his stats was junior Jeff Hook. He hurled 60 $\frac{1}{3}$ innings, gave up 10 earned runs, struck out 91, walked 27, and had a superb 1.16 ERA. Other pitching records were: Mark Thiel 3-0, Jay Gloor, 4-1, Steve Shock 2-1.

The Aces' offensive attack was awesome as it saw all nine starters end the season with batting averages above .300. The offense was led by Jeff Hook with a .440 average. The other averages included: Mike Volkert .376, Bob Battershell, .376; Mark Thiel, .368, Ron Bauer, .347; Jay Gloor, .330; Steve Shock, .330; Mark Haver, .308; Terry Slattery .308.

Post season honors were awarded to many. Earning All-League honors were: Bob Battershell, Mike Volkert, Jeff Hook, Ron Bauer, Mark Thiel, Mark Haver, and Steve Shock. In addition, Mike Volkert was selected as one of three of the NW District's Class A players to participate in the Ohio High School Baseball Coaches' All Star series.

The senior class showed great leadership and responsibility and they were rewarded by the results. The underclassmen were also instrumental in the accomplishments and show great promise for future years. This year's record will be hard to surpass, but next year's Aces will do everything within their power to improve upon it. 1982 was a great year for Aces' baseball.

HJCL Officers for 1981-82 were Bert Strubing, consul, Tim Turnbull, vice-consul, Tony Slattery, quaestor.

HJCL (Hicksville Junior Classical League) was quite active this year.

Service projects for the community included making tray favors for the "Meals-on-Wheels" shut-ins. At Christmas, gifts were purchased for the Fountain Manor senior citizens.

Other activities involved members earning money for state convention by having a candy sale and a bake sale. Activities involved members earning money for state convention by having a candy sale and a bake sale.

In December, the traditional Saturnalia was held. Latin songs were sung; Latin bingo and other games were played. Gifts were exchanged; refreshments consisted of pizza and grape juice.

In March, members attended state convention in Columbus.

Hicksville's Tim Crow was president of OJCL for the 1981-82 school year and therefore presided over the convention.

Many contests were held and HJCL members participated in most. The club received a second place trophy for its project entry and a third place trophy for its scrapbook. Three club-of-the-month trophies were received for the months of May, August and January.

The traditional Roman Banquet usually held in May had to be cancelled. There was no way to fit it in to the heavy schedule of spring sports.

The Spanish-French Club has been very active in the past year. The members had a Halloween party at the Sonner residence, consisting of Spanish and French food, a hayride, and a costume contest in which Lee Ann Amaden placed third; Hope Ahrens, second; and Cindy Smith, first place as a taco.

The club sponsored a St. Patrick's Day Dance for the high school on March 13 which was a success.

The final project of the Spanish-French Club was to eat at the Don Pedro Restaurant of Fort Wayne. The members are now looking forward to planning new projects for 1982-83 school year.

The Outdoor Education Club, advised by Mr. Jerry Balser, was quite active during the 1981-1982 school year. Under officers Bob Battershell, president; Mike Burlingame, vice president; Diane Wonderly, secretary; and Laci Dunmire, treasurer, the group participated in many outdoor, nature-related activities.

In the fall the club picked up trash on area country roads. On December 14 they went to Antwerp indoor swimming pool. The group made another attempt at collecting trash on May 2, but was rained out.

The club continued to remain active during the summer months as well. By the end of the school year, the club was making plans to go canoeing, fishing, and to visit a shooting range.

New Advisor Heads Spoonrift for 1982

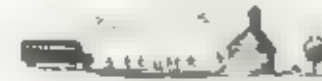

The 1982-1983 Spoonrift staff was advised by Mr. Phillip Trzynka. The staff members were few, but the ones that worked put out four issues of the paper.

Pete Greer, the editor of the paper, wrote interesting and positive, spirit-promoting editorials. He was aided on the staff by Dawn Wahl, Rusty Amaden, Crystal Parsons, Margie Larry, Theresa Reinig, Deb Mahan, and Kenny Knapp.

The members of the clerical typing class, under Mrs. Delong, typed the issues of the Spoonrift to help the staff meet the deadline.

Where's the cropper? . . . We have to make the deadline . . . Where's the rest of the staff? . . . What, you dropped the camera

These are the common expressions used when working on the yearbook this past year. The staff worked on Monday and Wednesday afternoons, during their study halls and whenever they could find the time to try to get the book completed.

Five staff members went to a yearbook camp at Kenyon College during June of 1981 to learn what is involved in putting together a yearbook. Attending the camp were Patty Ritter, Toni Brown, Sara Bailey, Mark Biery, and Deb Cole. At camp they decided the yearbook's theme and style.

This year's book evolves around the senior class song, "As Tears Go By." The staff has tried to work emotion into the annual and they hope that you enjoy it, as well as all of the fond memories of the 1981-1982 school year.

We're Proud of Our State-Ranked Aces

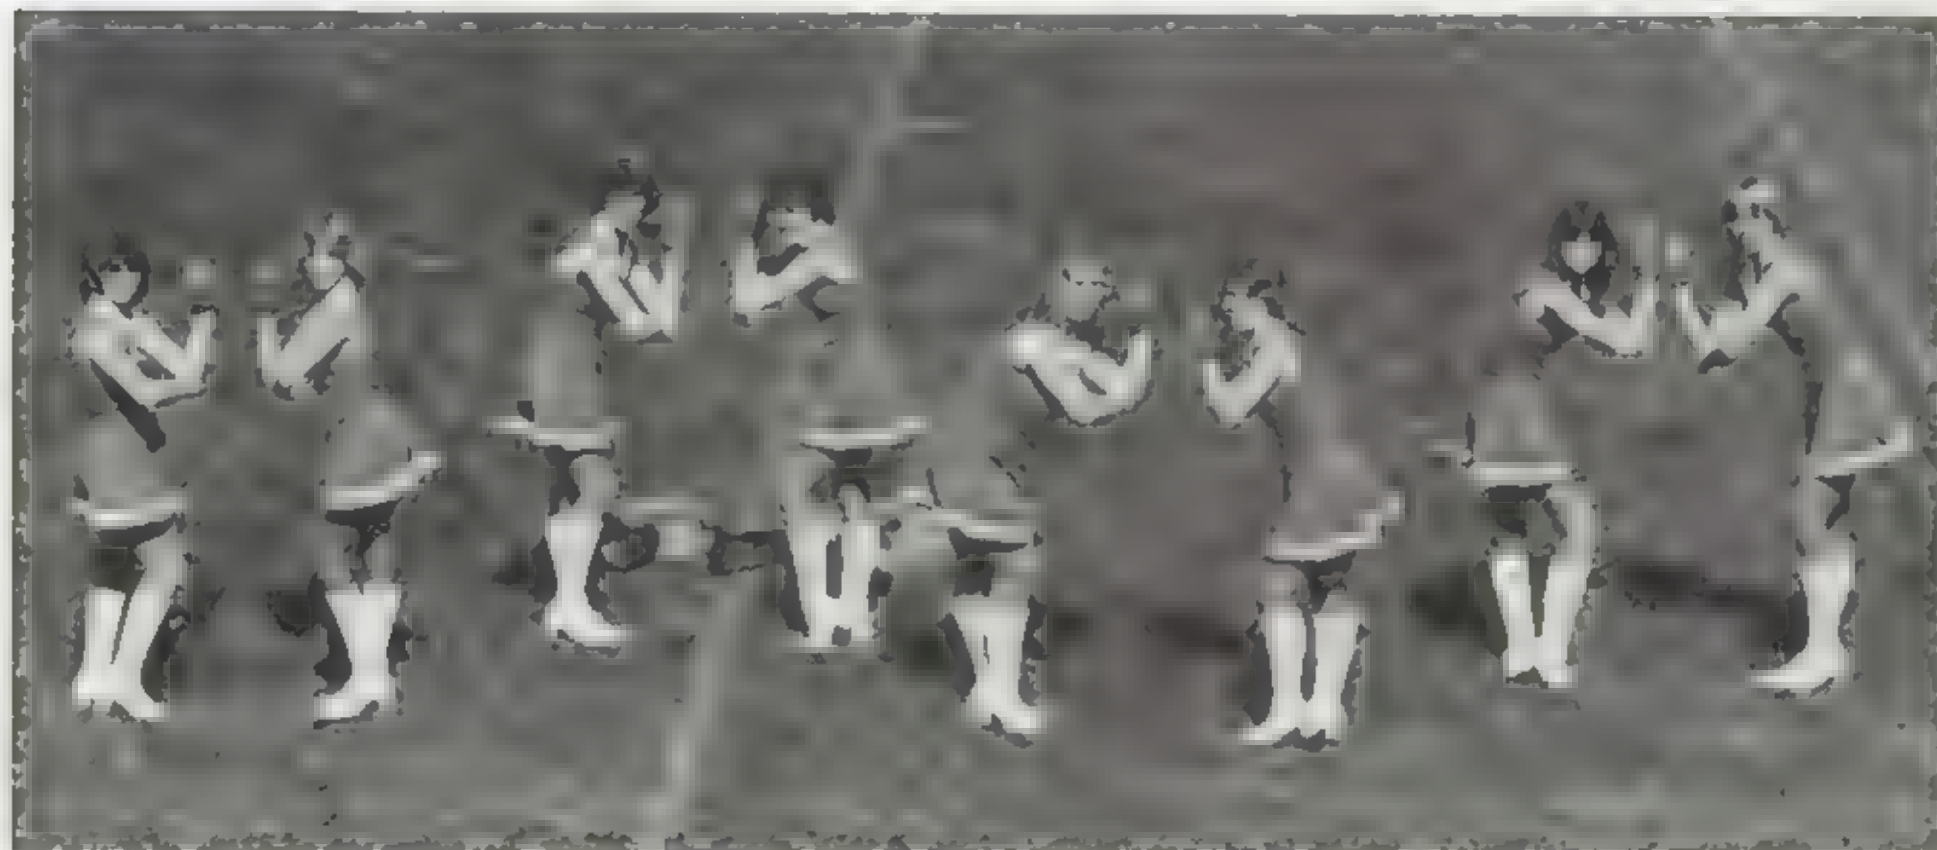

The glory of a decisive victory . . . the agony and heartbreak of defeat . . . cheers, whistles, and shouts of encouragement . . . the final buzzer, the last inning, the finish line . . . seemingly endless hours of practice that make a state berth come true

Our Aces baseball team took a trip to Columbus this year with its 27-2 record. The team was only one game away from the state championship when they were defeated by Cadiz, 5-4 in a heartbreaker.

The Aces track team sent six individuals to Columbus also, with five of them earning places.

Yes, this was the spring sports season of the Aces. What else can we say, except we're proud of you!

Gladys Ahrens rehearses "Voxuosity," her solo piece for the spring concert

Patti Hart composes a scale for her music theory assignment

Mr. Parrott directs the band showing his staccato form

This year the HHS concert band had a full, active season. The band rehearsed many difficult pieces for a Christmas concert, contests, and for a spring concert. For the first time in ten years the band participated in district band contests at the University of Toledo, where they received a well-deserved excellent rating

Before contests the band played in the Defiance County Band Festival where they strongly represented Hicksville High School and the community

Individuals also represented Hicksville throughout the state. Bandsmen Patty Ritter and Gladys Ahrens participated in many honors bands including the All-Ohio State Fair Band, Eastern Michigan University Honors Band, Kent State Honors Band, and the Tri State Honors Bands. Several members from the band also participated in the Top of Ohio Honors Band in Bryan.

Several students took part in solo and ensemble contests this year, including many freshmen, which Mr. Parrott was pleased with. Among the honors given at the end of the year, Gladys Ahrens was the recipient of the John Philip Sousa Award for her hard work and dedication.

Junior High Band Performs for Concerts

Mr. Parrott uses much expression while conducting the junior high band.

Jodi Kuhn and Susie Meyer prepare for the spring concert with daily practice.

Some sixth grade trumpet players listen for instructions.

The band responds to a musical question asked by Mr. Parrott.

The grade school cadet bands were directed by Mr. Doug Parrott. The groups learned many fundamentals and developed poise while playing in front of an audience at a spring concert.

These fine musicians will make a fine high school concert band in the future with continuous work and practice.

Mr. Fulk directs the Choir

The Choir sings their hearts out!

This year's high school choir was under the new direction of Mr. Glenn Fulk. The group's main performances this year was performing at the Defiance County Chorus Festival, which was held at HHS, and singing for the last time at graduation. Throughout the rest of the year, the choir rehearsed various popular tunes.

A Day in the Halls of HHS

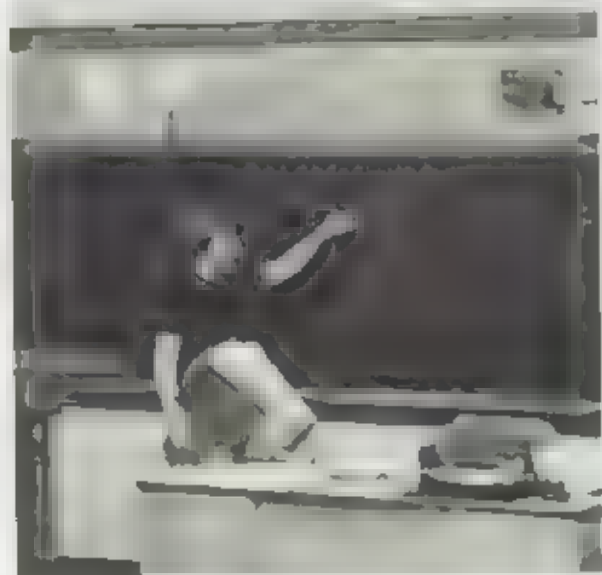

Academics

Drama Is Added to English Curricula

A junior high student shows the seventh grade English class a linking verb

The HHS English Department, under five instructors, offered a variety of studies which included the fundamentals of literature, grammar, punctuation, and spelling

Junior high English was taught by Mrs. Peverly and Mrs. Kaltenbach. A new junior high library aided the junior high students with their English projects. Both courses gave the students chances to improve their book reports and research abilities

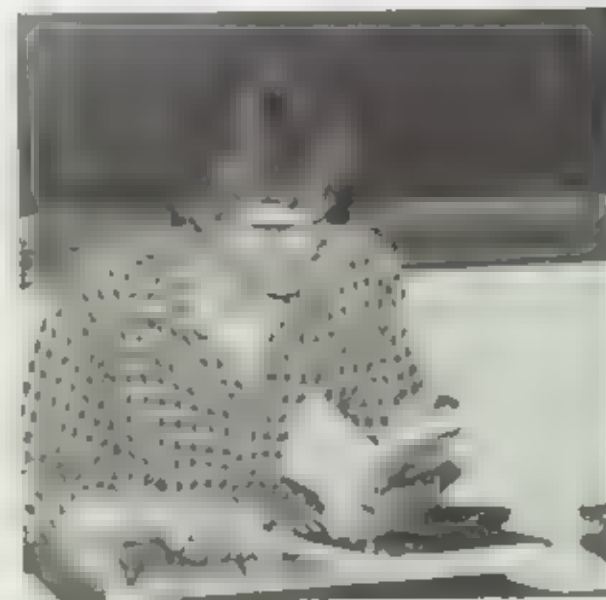

Freshman English was taught by Mr. Tryzynka and Mrs. Redden. They studied poetry, basic grammar, library work, and Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet. This was the first year freshmen were divided into college prep and general courses

General sophomore and junior English classes were under the instruction of Mrs. McAdams. The books Pigman and The Outsiders, as well as short stories of literature, were read in the sophomore classes. English II students read The Pearl and Hurricane

All college prep students were taught by Mrs. Redden. Sophomores learned formal writing skills and practiced giving speeches. Junior students wrote their autobiographies and learned critical reading skills. Seniors went on to study classical literature and writing term papers to further prepare them for college

For a college-prep English assignment, Brad Kline reads The Mayor of Casterbridge

John Gramm gives a speech about his term paper

For an assignment in drama class, Dawn Wahl and Nora Stairhime act out a play

Students Study Cultures Through Foreign Languages

Gale Smith conjugates the verb "to have" into French

Shawn Morehouse puts up a bulletin board for French class

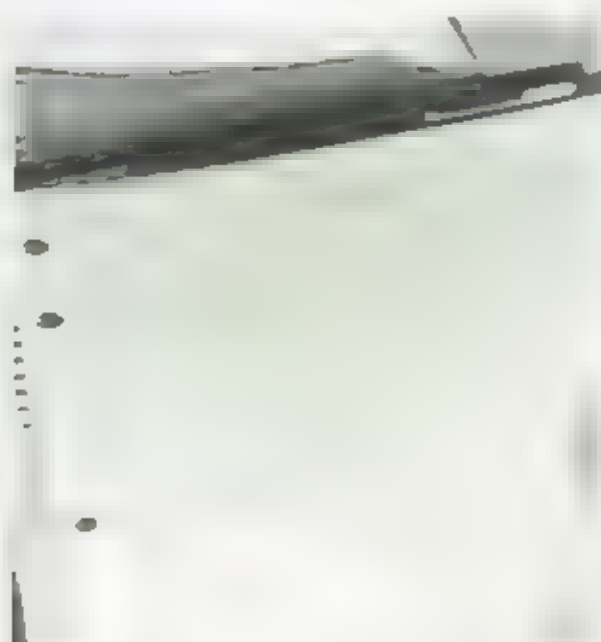

Bert Strubing does board work in Latin class

Kelly Watson and Liz Groh practice their Spanish

This year's Foreign Language Department was headed by Mrs. McAdams and Mr. Tryzynka. They offered the courses of Latin I and II, French I, and Spanish I. Along with learning the languages, the students were also familiarized with the cultures of other countries

Courses Prove Challenging in Math Department

This is an example of homework done in Geometry class

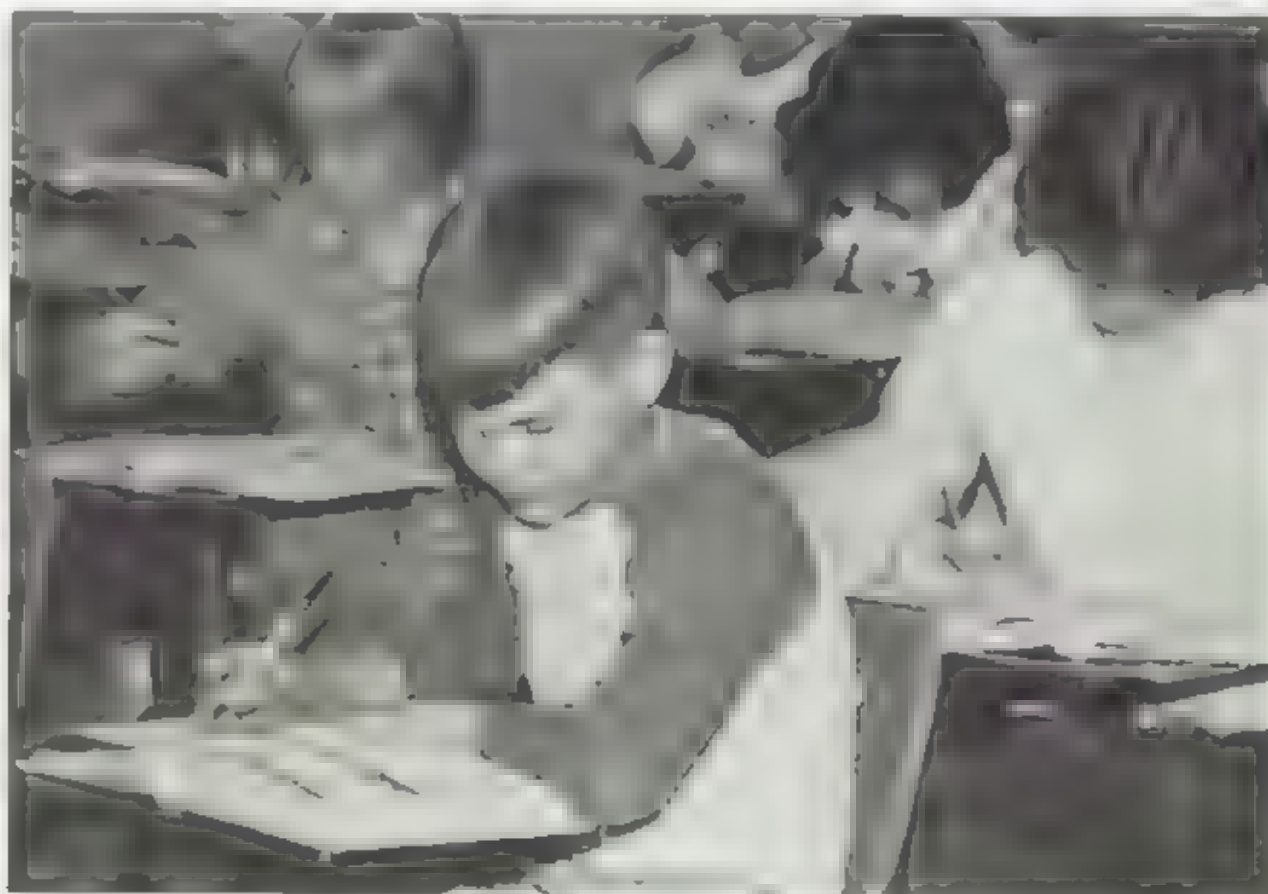

Algebra student Andy Bailey shows how to work a problem

The mathematics department, headed by Mr. Fast, Mr. Peter, and Mr. Thiel, prepared students for harder math courses in high school and in college.

The junior high students basically learned fundamentals, which prepared them for Algebra I.

Second year Algebra was an extension of Algebra I and presented the students with more complicated problems.

Geometry and senior math prepared students for math courses on the college level and dealt with applying algebraic reasoning to geometric forms.

The junior high works on their math homework

Mr. Thiel helps student Amy Hathaway with her math

Senior student Bob Battershell puts an example problem on the board

Ron Bauer puts his homework on the board

Social Studies Department Is Headed by New Teachers

Mr. Dewitt discusses the Revolutionary War with his eighth grade class

During a current events film, Cathy Bauer points out a well-known politician

Uncle Sam and Mr. Brunow salute America

Bert Strubing listens closely to a lecture in geography

Lanya James and Lori Metz find Mr. Dewitt's lectures informative

Colleen Adams and Diane Amaden comment about a test given in Government class

The Social Studies Department was headed by Mr. Dick Dewitt, along with two new teachers, Mr. Bob Pelton and Mr. Pete Brunow

The junior high students learned the basics of Ohio and American history, while the high school students studied more in depth about American and foreign affairs.

Mr. Brunow provided his classes with monthly current event films, which kept his students informed about world happenings and important events

Special emphasis was placed on understanding the constitution and filing income taxes in the senior Government classes

Boys, Girls Switch Roles in Home-Ec Classes

Cleaning up is a crucial part of any home-ec assignment.

Jimmy Koller rinses his dishes

Nora Starbume prepares a soup for gourmet cooking

Junior high boys also learned to operate a sewing machine

Bachelor survival students enjoy the meal they prepared

For a bachelor survival assignment, Paul Terry learns how to prepare many interesting dishes

The Home Economics Department was instructed by Mrs. Patricia Miller this year. She taught many survival courses including junior high home-ec, Home-Ec I, Home-Ec II, Gourmet Cooking, and Bachelor Survival

This year the junior high boys were required to take a semester of home-ec, while the girls took a semester of Industrial arts. It proved to be a new experience for all involved

Physics Class Visits Chicago

Deb Wyatt carefully measures water for her chemistry experiment

Heidi Plasmann's experiment is a success

Physics fascinates Gladys Ahrens

Terry Slattery, Mark Haver, and Dave Miglin wait for their solution to boil

Tim Turnbull and Lauri Hilbert appear serious about dissecting their cat.

Gladys Ahrens and Diane Amaden dismantle a telescope after looking at the water tower through it

The Science Department offered a variety for the students at HHS. The physics, chemistry and biology classes were under the instruction of Mr. Kaltenbach. The general science classes were taught by Mr. Balser.

The physics class had projects that included electricity, mechanics, and nuclear physics. They also visited many places in Chicago, pertaining to their studies.

In chemistry, the students learned the basic symbols and equations. They also conducted many experiments throughout the year.

The general science classes worked with the environment, electricity, and natural sciences. The eighth graders worked with a wide range of science fields and gained experience in the lab and with other experiments.

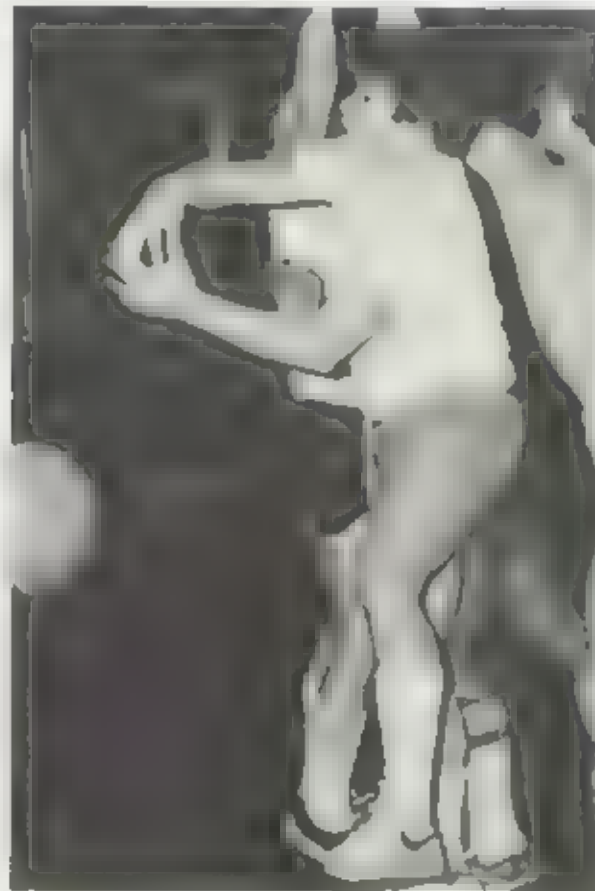

Phys Ed Classes Learn Conditioning

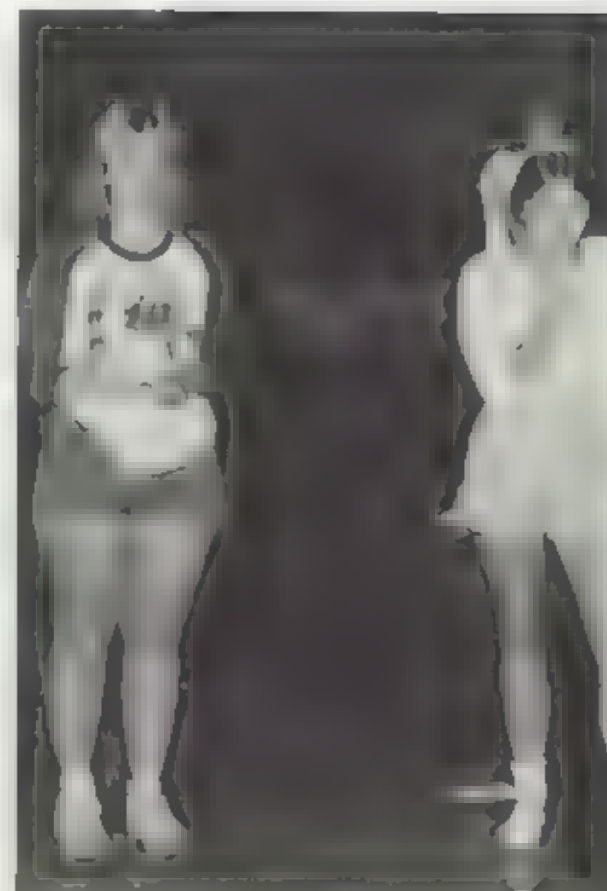

Three boys from phys. ed. wait patiently in line for their turn at bat.

The physical education classes stressed the importance of physical fitness. The Girl's phys. ed. classes developed skills in individual and team competition to promote sports activity. They enjoyed co-ed volleyball and initiated a co-ed square dance which was enjoyed by the entire school body.

The Boy's phys. ed. got involved in volleyball, basketball, and wrestling. They also enjoyed trips to Hi-Lanes Bowling Alley to improve their skills in bowling.

Steve Shock goes for the ball in a tough game of basketball.

Kris Yoder and Diane Beck time their pulse after doing a series of exercises.

During Physical Fitness week, Mrs. Baringer helps Crystal Parsons find her pulse.

The fundamentals of basketball are stressed in boys phys. ed.

Mrs. Baringer coaches the girls on the fundamentals of volleyball.

Two New Courses Are Added to Business Curricula

Todd Burley works diligently and quickly at his typing

Various courses were offered this year in the Business Department. Among the classes available were business math, typing I and II, clerical typing, accounting, consumer economics, and business law.

Mr. Johnson taught the areas of business math and general business. He also instructed the two new courses of business law and consumer economics. The highlight of the business law class was the tour of the De fiance County Courthouse and jail and hearing a trial.

Typing I and II, clerical typing and clerical records were instructed by Mrs. Delong. Typing I students learned the basics of the keyboard, while the other students expanded on the skill. The clerical typing course familiarized students with the dictaphone, adding machine, and calculator. They also learned to figure payrolls, office practices, and how to file.

Mr. Johnson gets the point across to his students with actions and examples.

Jeff Etchey listens for instructions in business math

While working in the office Janny Brown practices filing.

These general business students find Mr. Johnson's lectures amusing

Marc Payton and Tub Rodocker participate in clerical records class

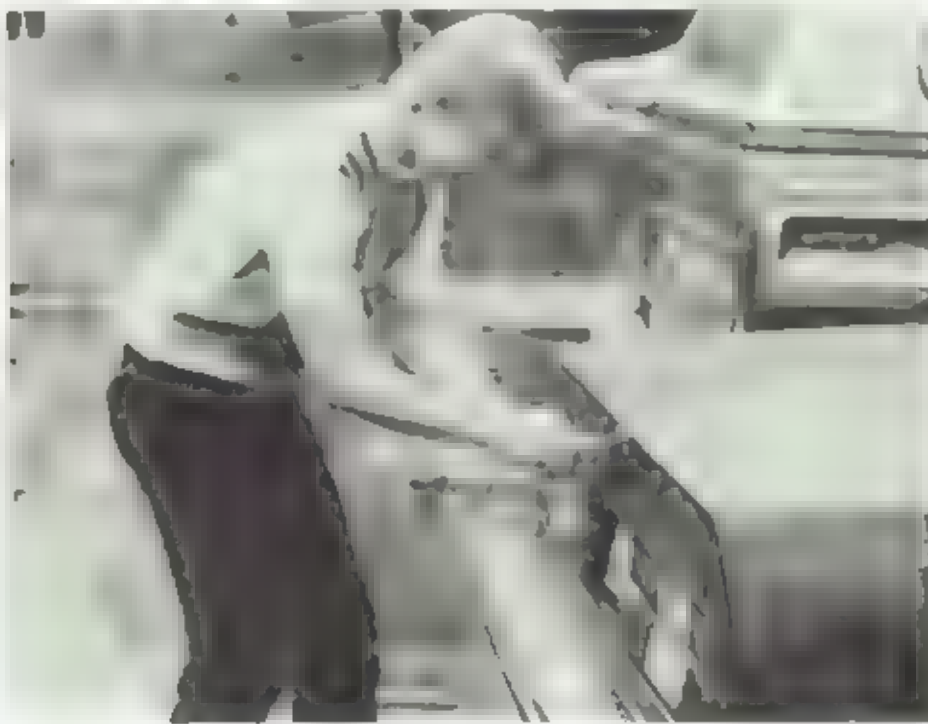

Driver's Ed Students Prepare for Highways

Ray Jones checks the oil

Steve Yontz shows the expertise in opening the trunk

Instructor Mr. Thiel is ready to go

The fun of learning to drive, the experience of driving on a highway is taught by Mr. Dallas Thiel

The students learn to change a tire, check the oil and to drive the car

The students first had to accomplish the book part of Drivers Education. It sometimes involved getting up an hour or two early to come to school. The students also had a patrolman come in and discuss safety in driving a car

There were also some movies showing the accidents caused by careless driving

After this year there will be more qualified students on the road. One of the first steps in becoming a mature and responsible person is taking the driver's license test

Susie Gordon poses for a picture

Theory, Appreciation Added to Musical Curriculum

Mr. Parrott demonstrates his directing style

Linda Michael and Becky Rager anxiously await a warm-up exercise in choir

Charmagne Cummins was a dependable accompanist for the choir and musical production

Heidi Plassman and Linda Hubbell work out a passage in their music

The clarinet section adds its beautiful sound to any band

More was involved in the music curriculum this year besides band and choir. Music appreciation, instructed by Mr. Fulk, covered music history and listening comprehension. Music Theory involved conducting and learning the basics of how music is formed. The members of the class, instructed by Mr. Parrott, received the opportunity to apply their studies by directing the junior high band and composing their own music

Arts Fair Draws Interest in Students' Work

Mr. Harmon poses with some of the industrial arts projects

This year's Arts Fair showed off a lot of talent and skills in both art and industrial arts. Many awards were given in both classes.

In industrial arts under craftsmanship, Susan Curths placed first, Sue Vetter 2nd, and Deanne Schooley placed third in I.A. 8 with Amy Talbott, Cheryl Amaden, and Regina Fuller receiving honorable mention. In I.A. 1, Shawn Klepper, 1st place, Jeff Volkert 2nd, and Scott Cramer 3rd. John Grimm took first in I.A. II and Mark Delbecq and Todd Green took second and third consecutively.

Under design, Michele Stairhime was awarded first prize, Melissa Amaden 2nd, and Beth Donley 3rd in I.A. 8. Tub Rodocker received first, Don Strubing 2nd, and Kelly Schlosser 3rd in I.A. I and Todd Burrgrave 1st, Barry Adams 2nd, and Eric Art 3rd, in I.A. II. Honorable mention went to Scott Cramer, Vic Lilly, and Diane Bond.

Under the area of finish, the winners were Chad Delbecq 1st, Christi Silvers 2nd, and Robin Prescott 3rd in I.A. 8. Ed Hathaway 1st, Larry Husted 2nd, and Ed Garman 3rd in I.A. I; and Mark Delbecq 1st, Tim Berg 2nd, and Paul Terry 3rd. Honorable mention went to Dawn Kale, Bob Hathaway, and Tim Snider.

The award for best of show went to John Grimm, a senior in I.A. II.

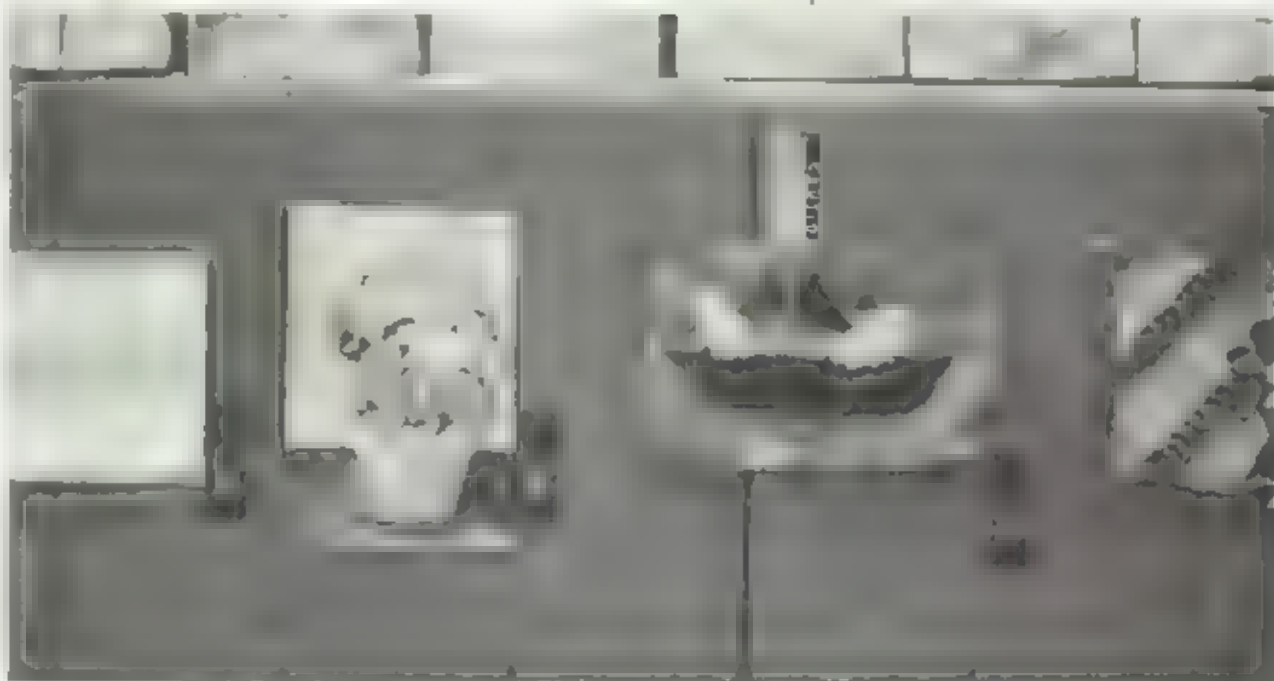

The art department was well represented also and the show was well attended. A guest artist was also brought in to demonstrate how to use the potter's wheel.

Ron Bauer and Trent Burlingame appear happy during the ceremony.

Dawn Wald hangs it up before commencement.

The Caperton twins leave with their diplomas with smiles on their faces.

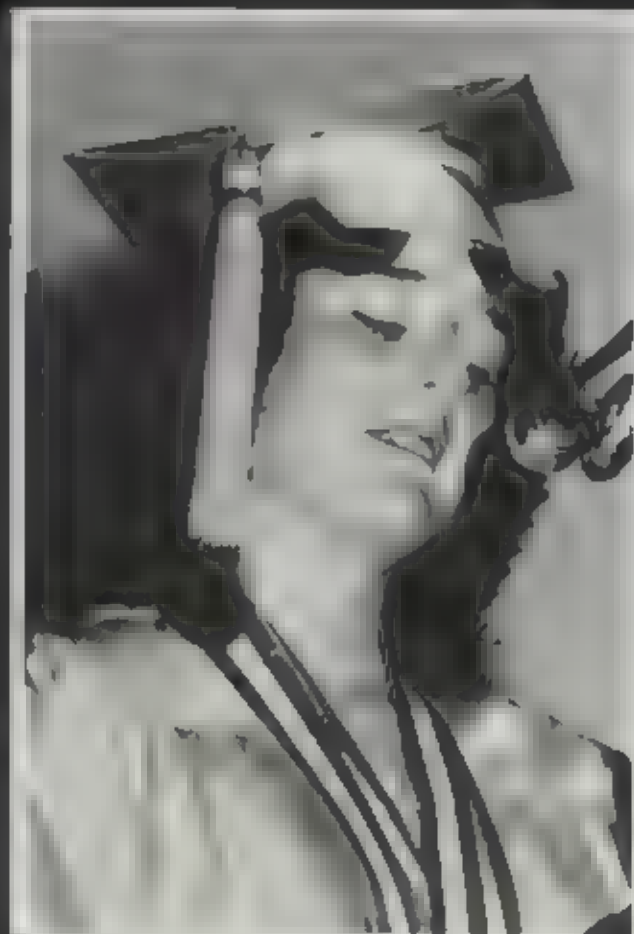

Tanya Hedderly and Charmagne Gunning give their memorable smiles while leaving the gym.

Bob Butterfield, class president, bids farewell to Mr. Decker.

The class members listen intently to the words of wisdom, provided by the graduation speaker.

As part of being salutatorian, Renee Wonderly gives her address.

Sara Bailey and Patty Stone prove to be emotional about leaving HHS.

Class president, Bob Battershell addresses his classmates for the last time.

Toni Brown discovers that her diploma has been signed!

I love yesterday,
but it is gone forever
I love today
because it is one step closer.
I will love tomorrow or it tells me I will be

Trent Burlingame leads the Class of 1982 into the future.

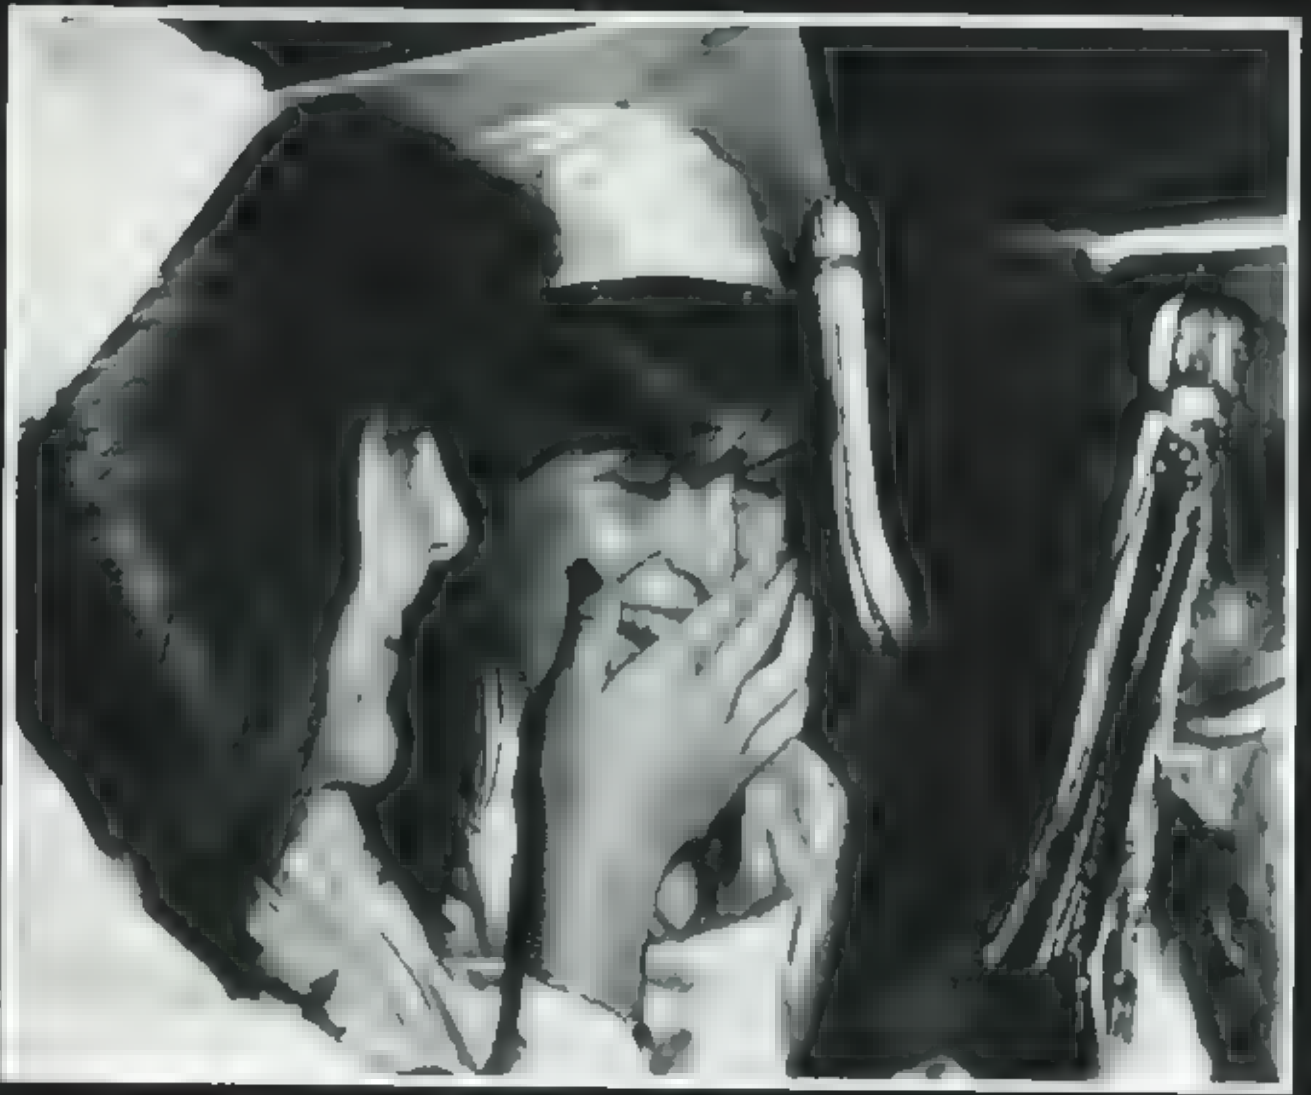

Class members change their trunks, stepping one step closer into the future.

Monica Jones and Deann Haver leave HHS with smiling faces.

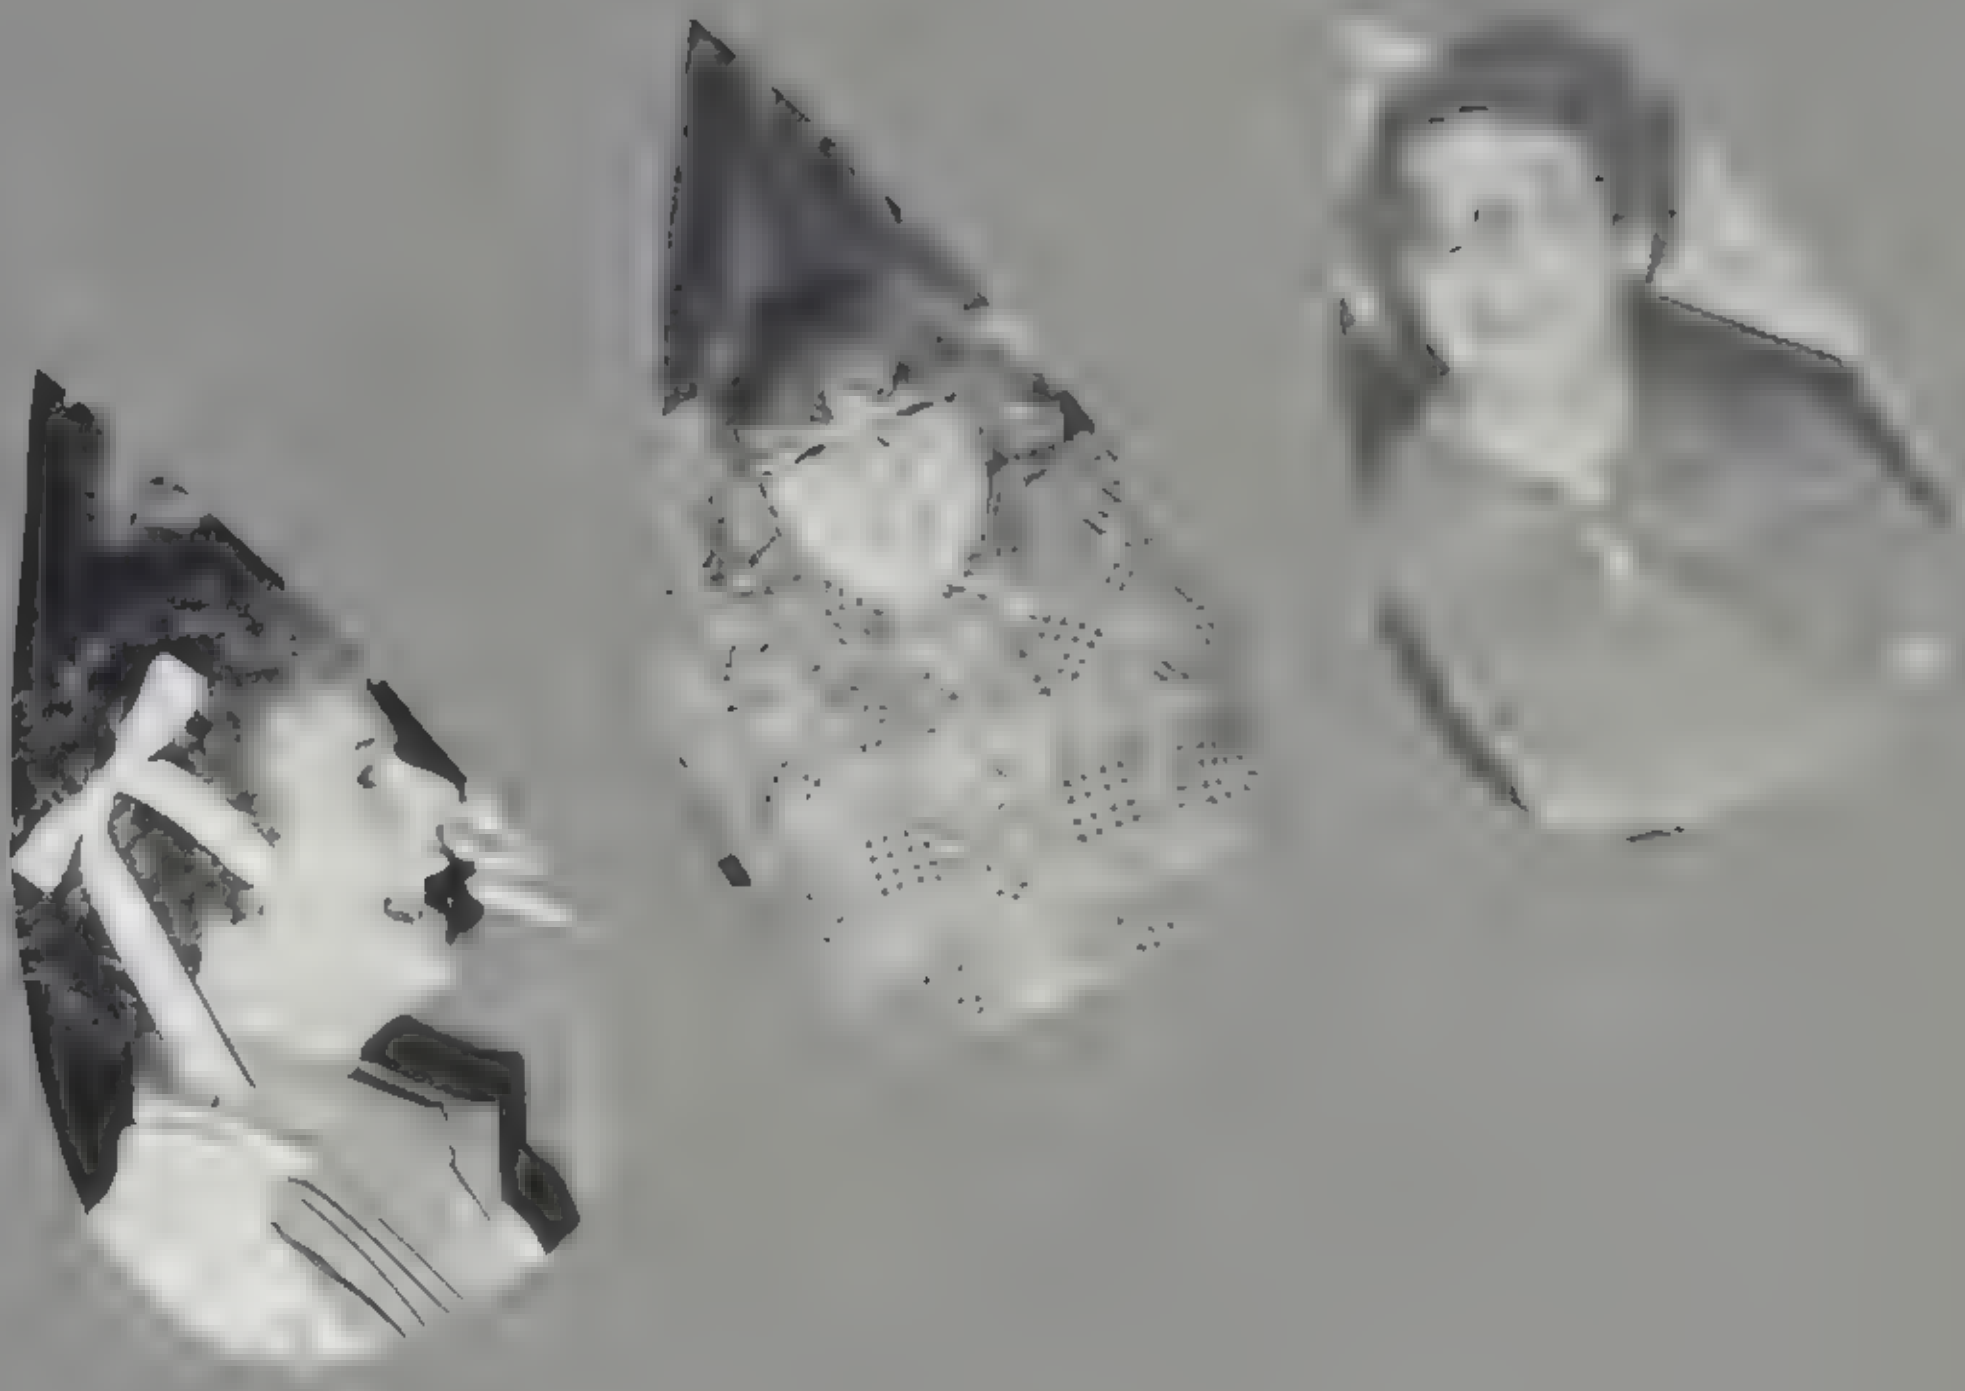

Steve VonKarnal receives his diploma from Mr. Applegate.

"Tis easy enough to be pleasant
When life flows along like a song,
But the man worth while is the one who will stand
When everything goes dead wrong.
For the test of the heart is trouble,
And it always comes with the years,
But the smile that is worth the praise of earth
Is the smile that comes through tears.

Ella Wheeler Wilcox

Each one of us has our own special memories of Homecoming, Commencement, Graduation, and the spring sport season. Hopefully, these were happy times, but we also had to accept the troubles of high school and the times when we could not always succeed.

As we finish this yearbook, we would like to thank our advisor, Mrs. McAdams, for her hard work and spirit. We hope that this yearbook will please you today and help you remember the past in the years to come.
